Franklin Regional High School

Murrysville, Pennsylvania

Foreword

We live in a world of the curious and the strange: man is forever discovering the unknown, and is, in essence, making fantasy a reality. For many years, we have been under the guidance of those who have traveled the long road of experience before us. However, they do not lack fear and still cannot answer all our questions. As part of our preparation, they have taught us the long-told tales which they learned as children. These tales of fantasy have given us practical advice which each of us must use at his own discretion. Even though no one can predict what lies ahead, nor everyone succeed as he wishes, each will be more prepared by knowing the contents of the tales, and how they relate to the many things we have learned at Franklin. We review them now in this the 1967 Quill.

Dedication

William Waskoskie

Mr. Waskoskie has more faces than any person connected with Franklin Regional. Not only has he been a faithful teacher for sixteen years, but as our head sponsor, he lent a helping hand in all of our class projects. He never failed, as Quill advisor, to correct and guide the editors when need be. In his spare time, Mr. "Was." headed the science department and coached our rifle-team.

Donna Hughes

Miss Hughes, an English teacher, we remember mostly as the patient director of our play, Father of the Bride. She's the one who screamed at us and then finally enjoyed with us the efforts of much hard work. Under her direction, the play was probably one of the best at Franklin.

With Thanks . . .

The will to serve is an important aspect of one's character. Our principal, John A. Swacus, has shown this important quality to Franklin School District for twenty years, not only as an administrator but also as a teacher, coach, and friend. He has stressed to the students the importance of a good education and has taught us to be worthy of the opportunity to continue our education. It is appropriate that we thank him for all he has done and express our hopes that he has received much satisfaction from his term of service.

Mr. Swacus receives plaque for his term of service.

Mrs. Swacus; Mr. Davis, Mr. Swacus's principal; Mr. Swacus

Candids

Every man carries two wallets, one before and one behind, and both full of faults. But the one behind is full of his own. Thus it happens that men are blind to their own faults, but never lose sight of their neighbors.

"Know thyself!"

"We hope our friends see that we have changed although we may still have our faults."

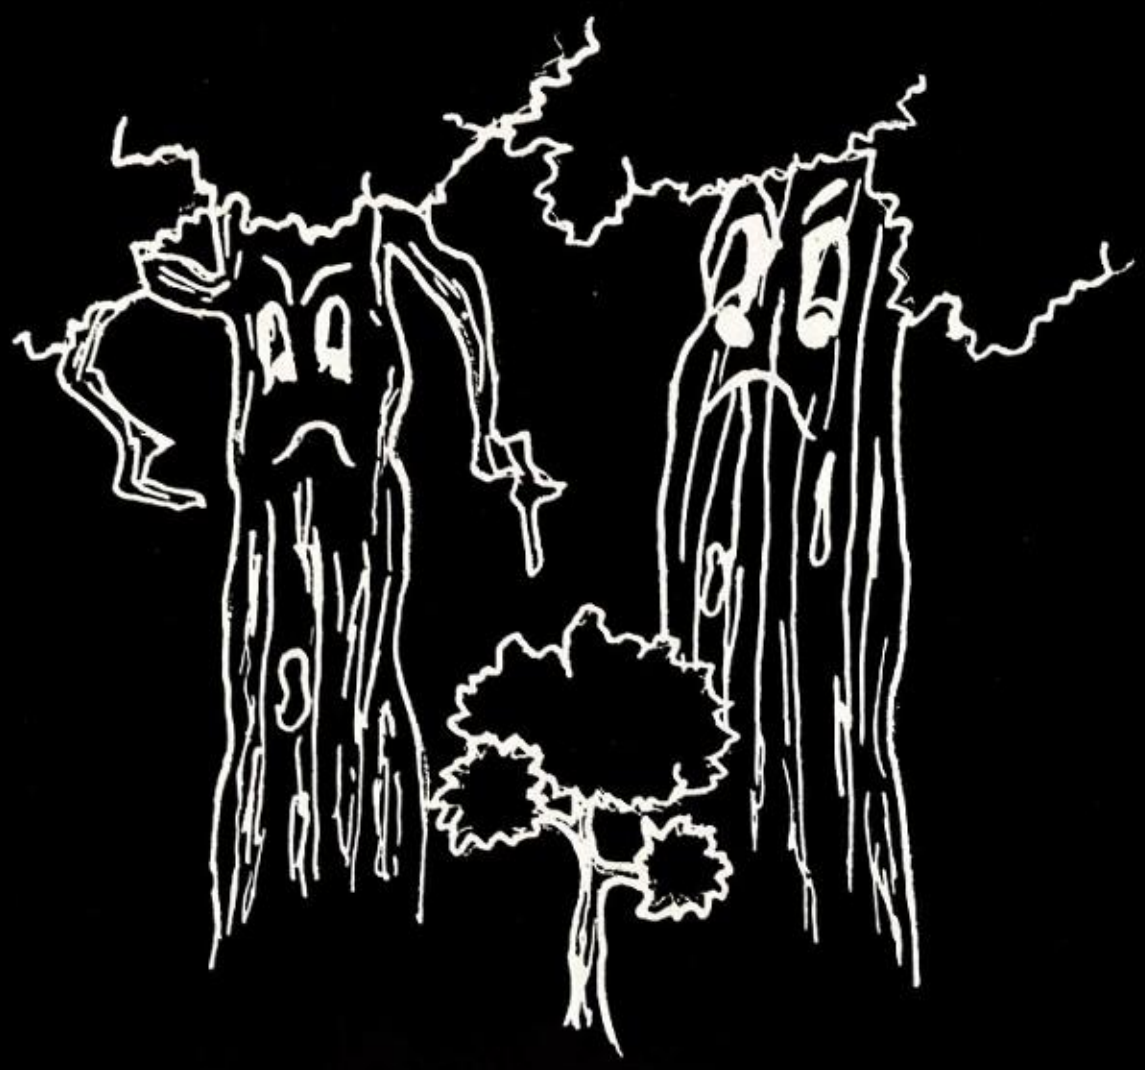
Seniors

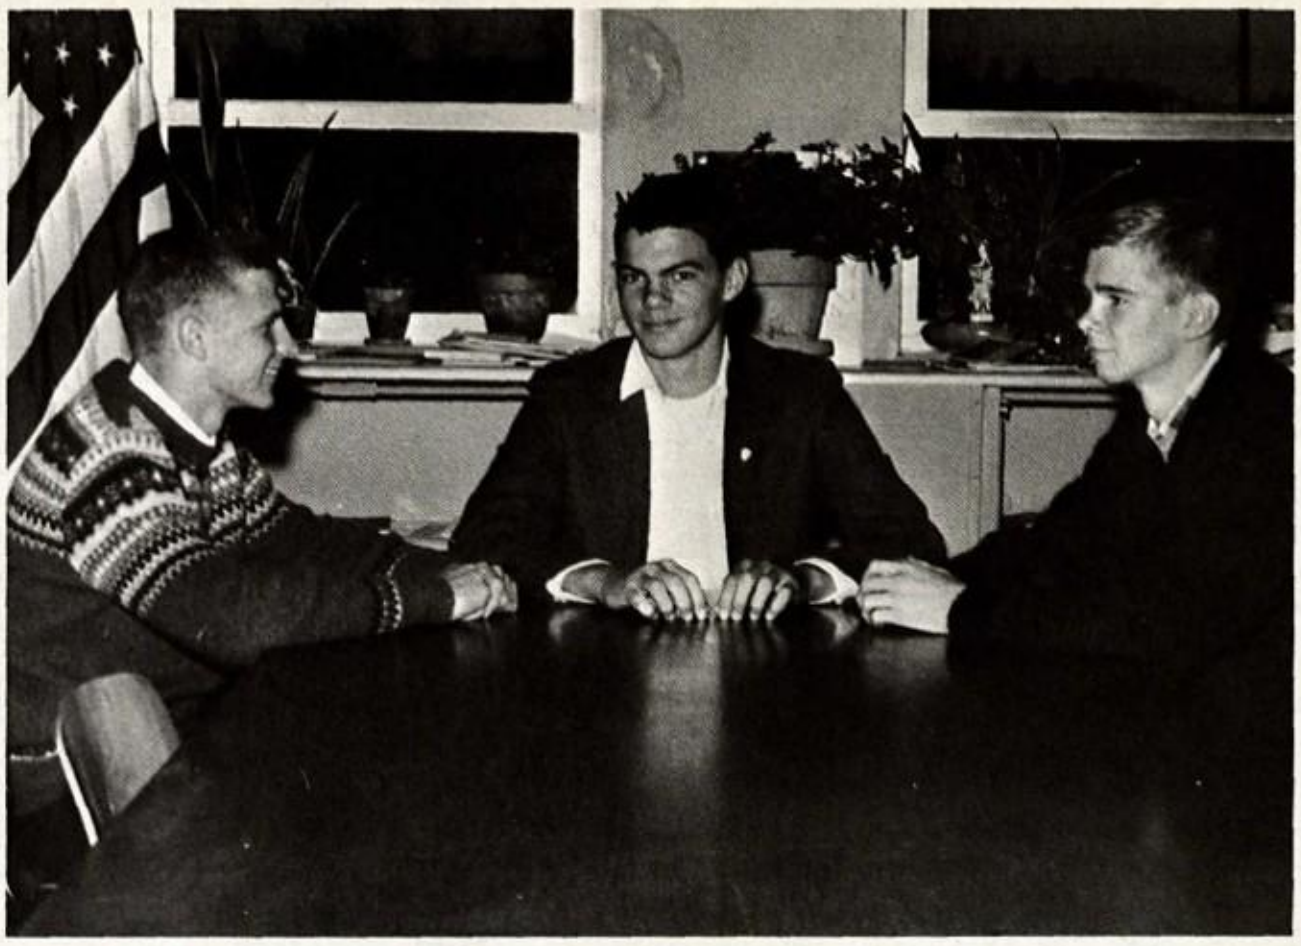
A woodcutter came into the forest one day to demand of the trees that they give him a handle for his axe. It seemed a small demand for so great an enemy, and it was decided that the woodcutter might have his way. But all the trees refused to let themselves be sacrificed for the purpose; until finally the plain, poor little ash was told to give itself up for the handle. No sooner had the woodcutter fitted his ash handle, than the trees began to lay about him on all sides, and one after another the great trees fell. Then the oak shook its head and said to the cedar, "If we had not sacrificed our little neighbor, we would still be safe for ages to come."

"Stand together, or fall separately."

Our class spirit made all our projects successful and memorable.



Class History



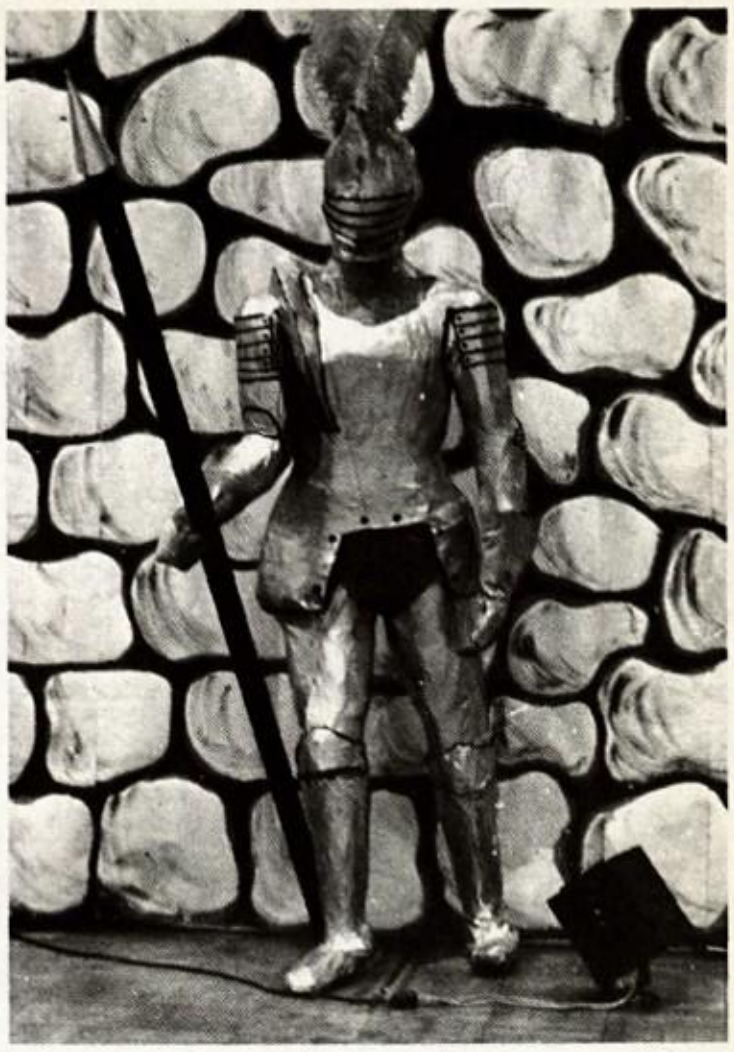
Class officers – Ron Ankeney, Vice Pres.; Paul Bruning, Pres.; John Ferguson, Sec.-Treas.

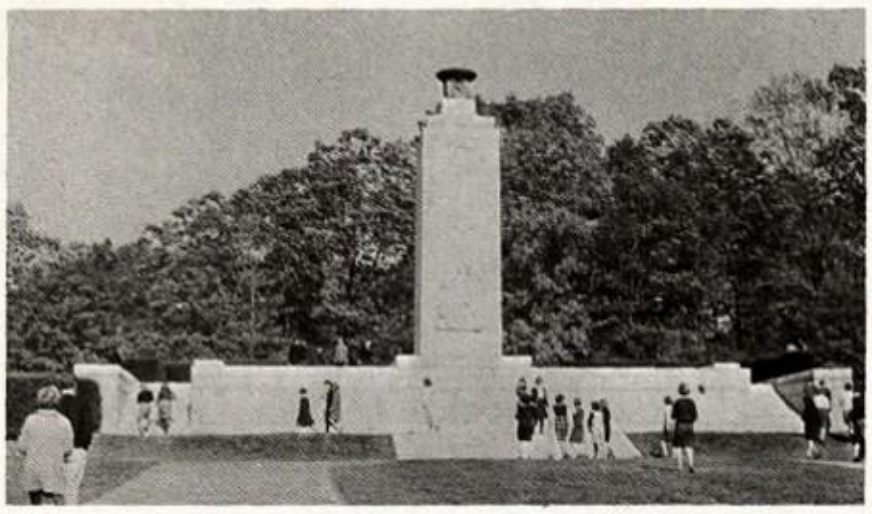
Graduation, symbolizing the climax of our high school days, terminates a most cherished phase of our formative years. For the Class of '67 this milestone has become a reality. Our years at Franklin Regional have passed quickly and the fond memories which they recall are still vivid.

We entered the senior high school, after being the leaders in the Junior high, only to find ourselves lost in a maze of upperclassmen. Under the leadership of Bob Trabucco, Ron Ankeney, and Lee Frazier we soon found ourselves with a spirit of belonging. This spirit made our beret sales and our Valentine dance 'Carousel of Hearts' profitable. The year was highlighted by the traditional sophomore trip to Gettysburg.

Our Junior year was a busy one. Following tradition it was our responsibility to organize the prom. Through the sale of pizza at basketball games, toy animals, and our successful play "The Mouse That Roared", our funds soared. Spring arrived, and the Junior-Senior prom "Camelot" was staged. For the first time in Franklin's History, the prom became a profitable enterprize.

As we entered our last year at Franklin, again led by our president Paul Bruning, we realized that it would involve both work and fun. After having two very successful dances our original "Trapo" at Thanksgiving, and our dreamy "Toyland" at Christmas and a fun packed play, "Father of the Bride", our class funds were stable. We all eagerly awaited the many memorable senior festivities and the Washington trip.





Class Sponsors – Mr. Whipkey, Mr. Bowers, Miss Galbreath, Mr. Nelson, Miss Galbreath, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Waskoskie, Head Sponsor.

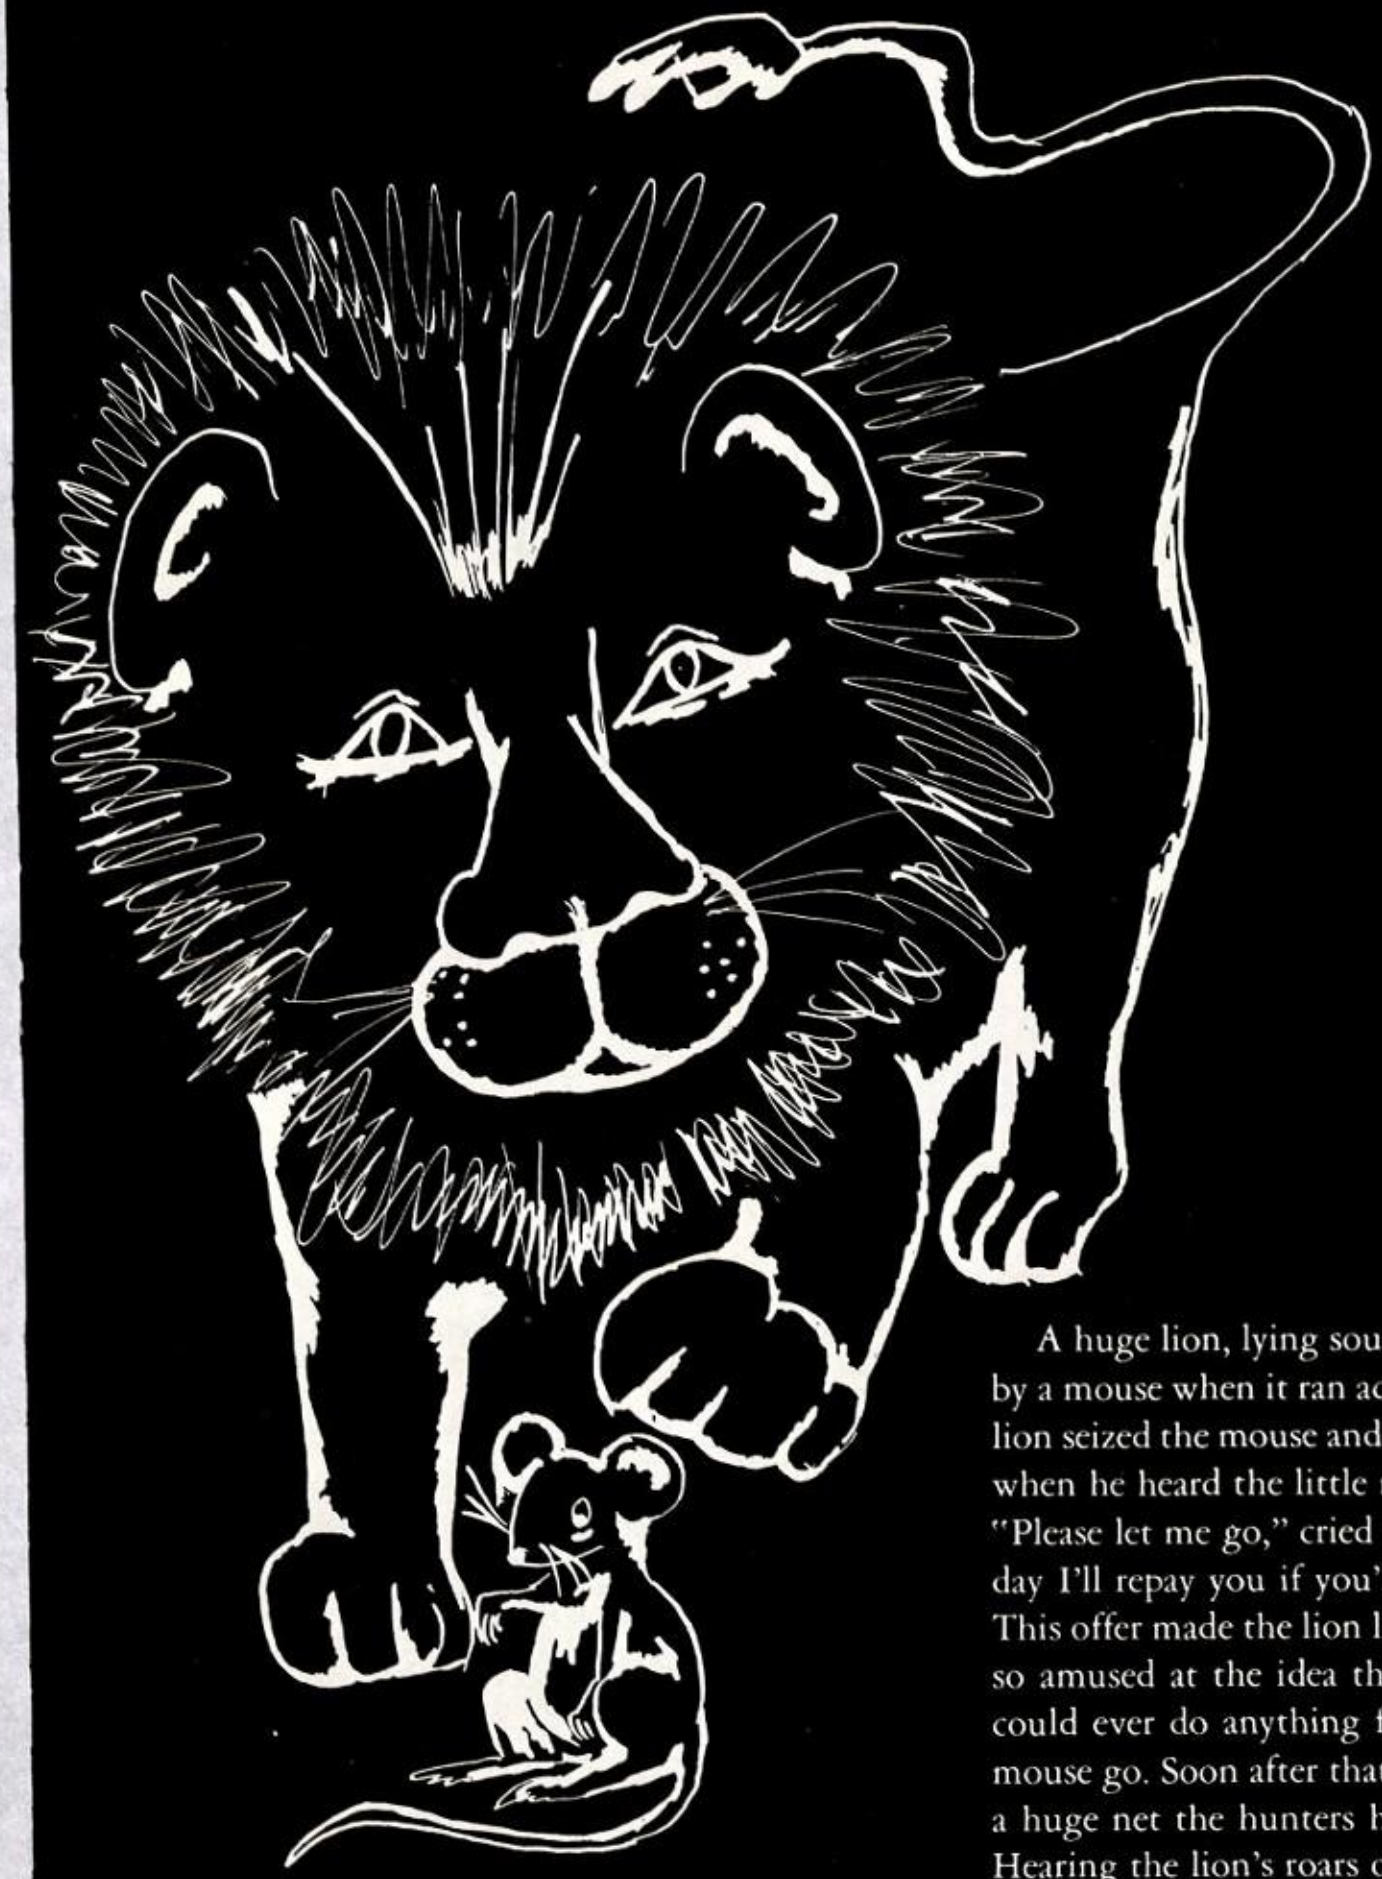
Underclassmen



A huge lion, lying sound asleep, was wakened by a mouse when it ran across his face. The angry lion seized the mouse and was just about to kill it when he heard the little mouse begging for life. "Please let me go," cried the mouse," and someday I'll repay you if you'll only spare me now." This offer made the lion laugh and in fact he was so amused at the idea that such a tiny creature could ever do anything for him that he let the mouse go. Soon after that the lion got caught in a huge net the hunters had spread to trap him. Hearing the lion's roars of anger as he struggled to get free, the mouse ran to the spot. At once he started to gnaw the ropes with his sharp teeth. Soon the lion was set free by the mouse.

"Your little friends are often your best friends."

"Our underclassmen are needed to make our activities, social events, and scholastic life complete.

Juniors

The Class of '68 worked ambitiously to meet the demands of their important junior year. For their class leaders they elected John Ptaszkiewicz as president, Bob McCullough as vice-president, and Rita Baker as secretary-treasurer. To raise money, they sponsored a car wash; the Halloween Dance, "The Great Pumpkin"; and the class play, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys" under the direction of Mr. Jacobs. The climax of the year was the beautiful Junior-Senior prom, "The Garden of the Gods."

John Ptaszkiewicz, President; Rita Baker Secretary-Treasurer; Bob McCullough, Vice-president.

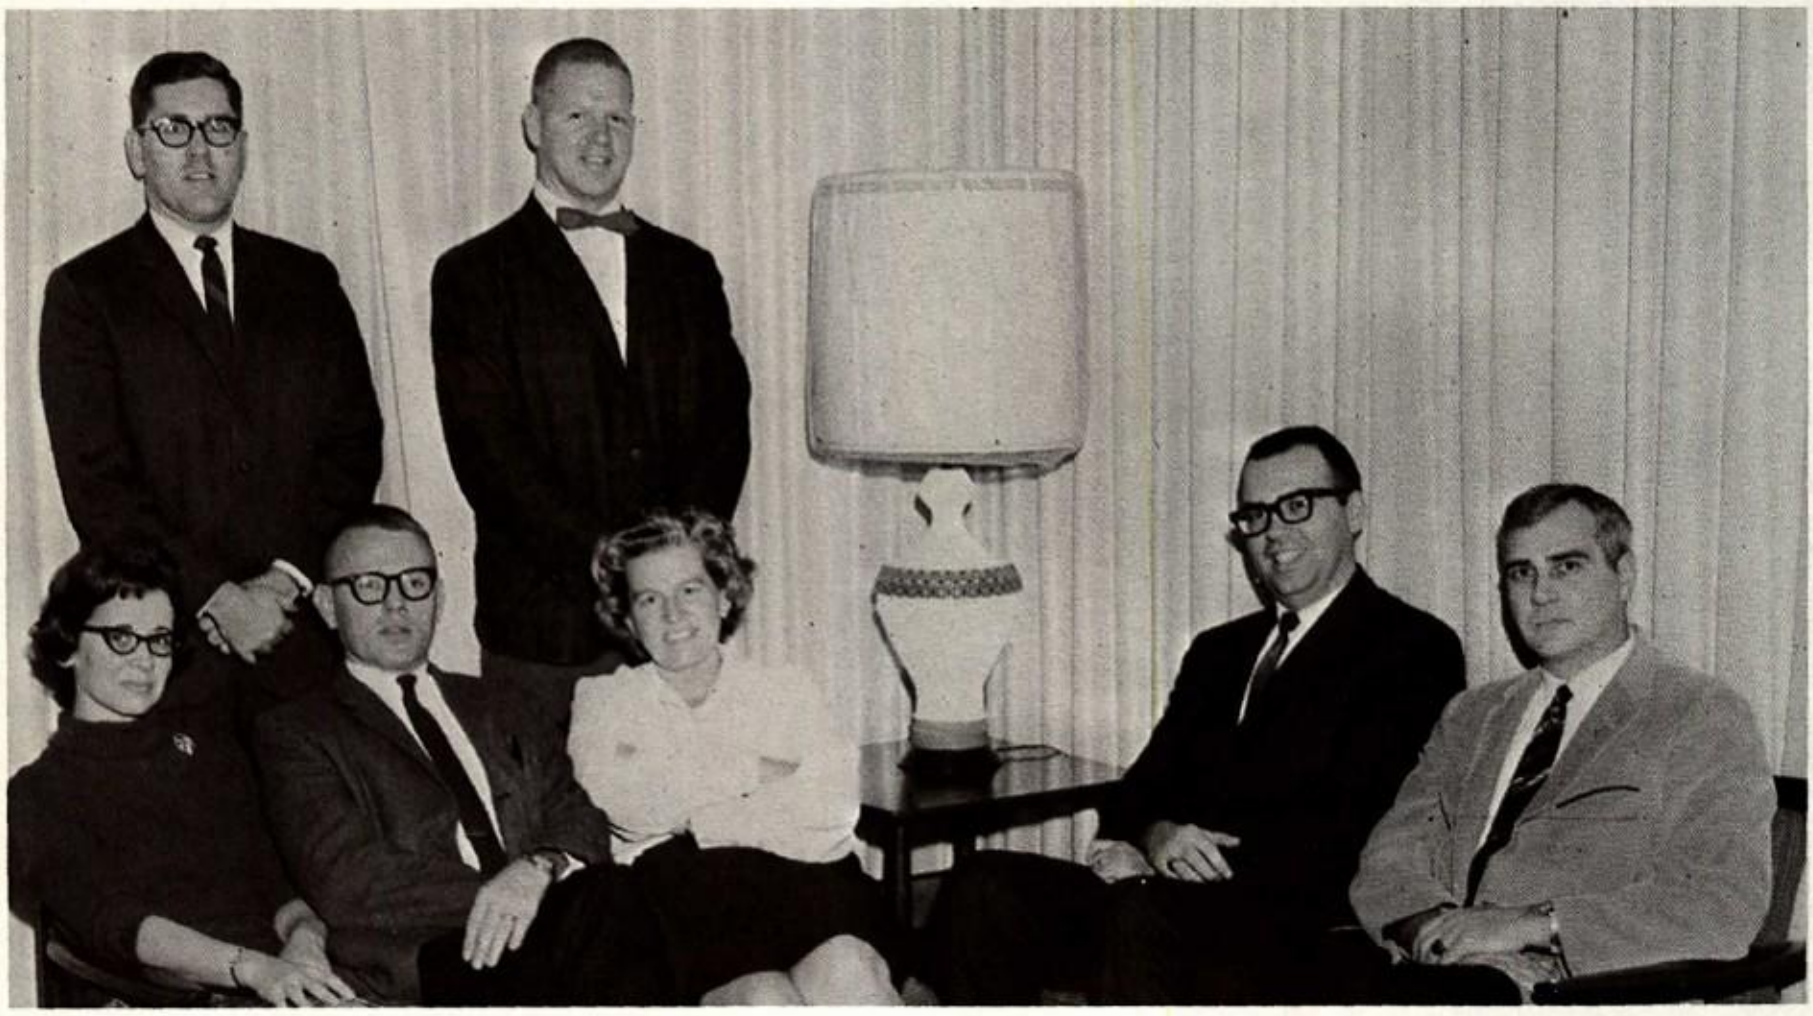
Sophomores

Entering their first year at the senior high, this year's Sophomores were full of energy and vitality. They quickly adjusted to the heavier work load and the increase in extracurricular activities. Early in the year, they elected David McCullough as president; Kirk Chadwick as vice-president; and Margie Stetson as secretary-treasurer. One of the most educational and enjoyable trips for the sophomores was the annual trip to Gettysburg, in the fall. Later, they were treated to the movie, The Fantastic Voyage, as an addition to their biology classes. In February, the class of 1969 sponsored a very successful Valentine's Dance.

Officers – Kirk Chadwick, Vice-President; Margie Stetson, Secretary-Treasurer; Dave McCullough, President.



Sponsors – Mrs. Leslie, Mr. Lozier, Mr. Jacobs, Mrs. Loveday, Mr. McCormick, Mr. Hill, Mr. Onder.

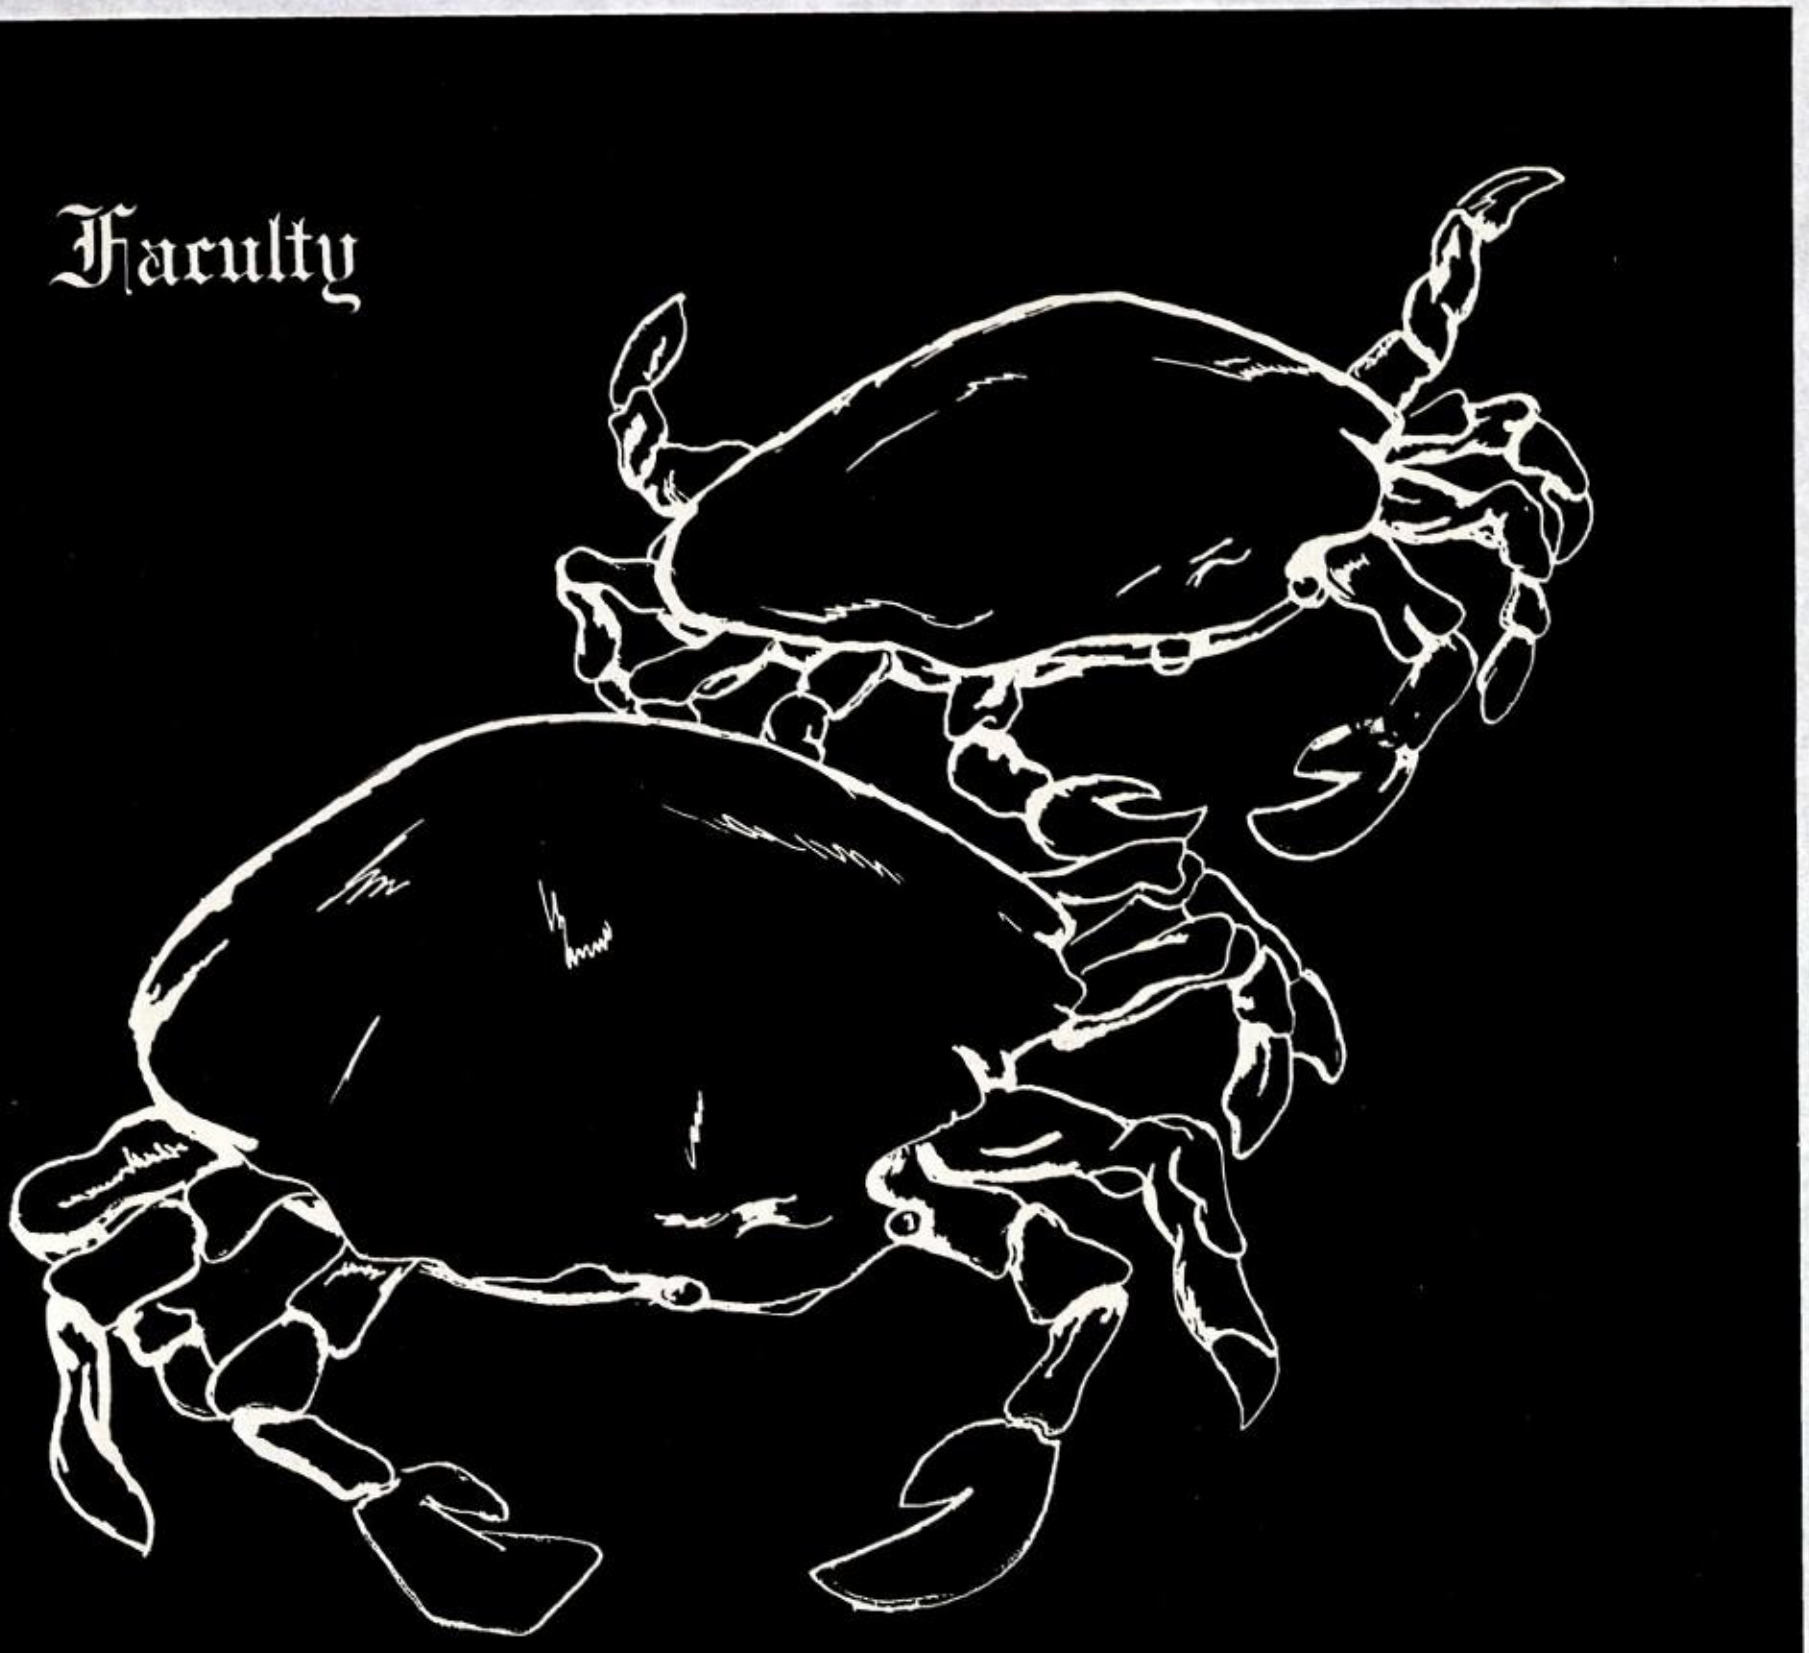
Faculty



A mother crab scolded her son for walking sideways. "You really ought to walk straight," she said. "If you'll show me how," the young crab replied, "I'll follow your example." The mother crab set off briskly, trying very hard to walk straight. Soon, however, she found that she could not keep from going sideways. Then she saw how foolish she had been to find fault with her son.

The mice were desperate because of the cat, who caught one or two of them every night. So they called a council to decide how best to put an end to their troubles. Many plans were suggested and discarded; but at last a smart young mouse spoke up and said, "Why not put a bell on the cat, so that we can hear her coming?" Everyone thought that this was a really fine idea, and a vote was about to be taken when a shrewd old mouse, who had kept quiet up till then, remarked, "This is a perfect solution, but I have one little question I should like to ask, "Who is going to bell the cat?"

"It is one thing to make great plans, and another to carry them out."

"The students At Franklin have great ideas for futhering their school life, and they try to carry out as many as possible."

A high honor at Franklin is to be elected to the National Honor Society, sponsored by Mrs. Hanks. Members are carefully selected on the basis of character, service, leadership and scholarship. Several activities have highlighted the 1966-67 school year; a back-to-school dance, a spaghetti dinner in February to earn money, and an impressive induction ceremony. Also our chapter hosted to the three-county Regional Conference in the spring. This quite successful year closed with an enjoyable banquet for all members.

The Franklin Chapter of the National Thespian Society is one of the thousands in the country established for the advancement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools. However, ours is probably one of the most productive. Under the patient guidance of Mr. Plischke, this year it presented several one-act plays, a children's play, sponsored various field trips and an induction tea. Numerous members filled the vacant hours with work on class plays and several assemblies.

Activities

A blacksmith once took in a dog, who had asked if he could have a bone and make himself useful, promising to do all sorts of helpful things around the smithy. But while the blacksmith hammered away at his metal, the dog slept; and when he sat down to dinner, the dog woke up and wagged his tail "You lazy Cur!" said the disgusted blacksmith, tossing him a bone, "You sleep through all the noise of the anvil but wake up at the first clatter of dishes."

Junior Class Play

"We'd declare war on Monday, be vanquished Tuesday, and rehabilitated beyond our wildest dreams by Friday night."

"Would you give me your favor to carry?"

"All right – it's a bomb."

"The Mouse That Roared" was presented as the junior class play. A large cast contributed to the overwhelming success of the production. Cary Spear was Queen Gloriana and Edwin Ridout played Tully Baskom. The play was highlighted by the appearance of many humorous characters in hilarious situations. The play was directed by Mr. Plischke and Miss Hughes.

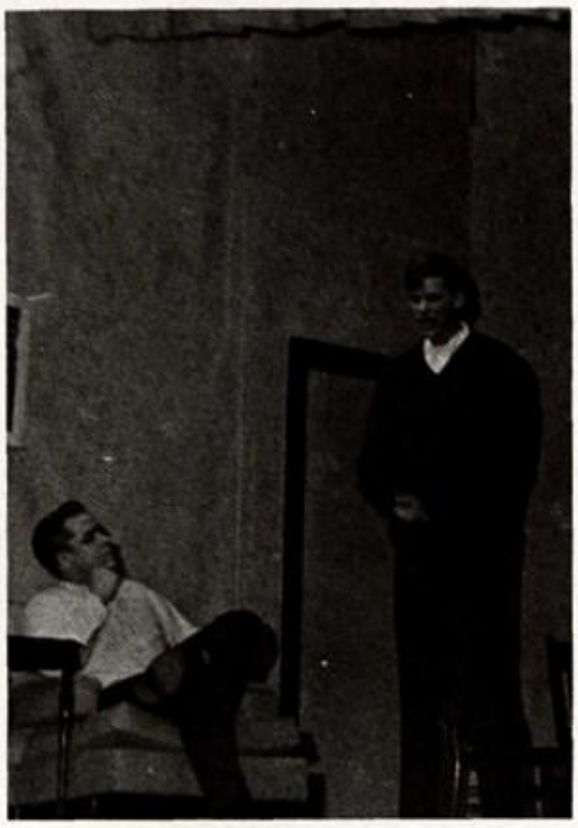
"What could you do with such a tiny – I mean, as a practical matter?"

Senior Play

The Senior class presented "Father of the Bride" as its play this year. A large cast, under Miss Hughes, attempted to portray the typical confusion in the house of the bride to be. Their efforts were rewarded by a capacity attendance each night. It was said to be one of the best plays in Franklin's history.

"What the heck is going on here."

"Miss Kay don't know no Babbette."



"Well you see, Mr. Banks, I think marriage is sacred."

"I told him not to take another one of those pills.

A.F.S. Student

It seems just like yesterday that I was saying good-bye to my family and friends and boarding the plane which was to take me many thousands of miles to the United States. Now a year has gone by and it is time once again to board the plane and return to my homeland of New Zealand. This year at Franklin has been such a happy one for me that it is with a feeling of sadness that I prepare to leave. However, I will always remember the past twelve months, the friendliness of students and teachers, the kindness of the community and the warmth of my host family, the Bassetts.

My stay here was made possible by the American Field Service. This is truly a wonderful organization, as it helps promote international good will and thereby improves the peaceful relations between countries. I hope that everyone at Franklin will continue to support this organization and the very able A. F. S. committee which you have in this community.

This year has certainly been a great experience for me, and I know that it has done much to broaden my outlook and learn more about the United States. I will take this knowledge back with me and pass it on to my fellow Countrymen so they will understand better just what life over here is like. If any of you get the opportunity to travel, I do urge you to come to New Zealand, as I am sure you would find your visit worthwhile.

I would like to say thank you to everyone of you for making this year at Franklin such a happy and rewarding one. You can be sure that I will never forget it.

Best of Luck

After many months of careful planning, the decorating for the '66 prom "Camelot" got under way. All steps were taken to try and transform our gym into a fairy castle of old England.

As we finished, we looked upon our castle as a wonderful accomplishment. Tired but happy, we eagerly awaited the prom evening we had planned and worked for so hard.

Sports

One warm afternoon a hare was making fun of the tortoise because he was so slow. The tortoise laughed, and said he would beat the hare any time he wanted. "Come on," said the hare "and I'll show you what kind of runner I am!" They decided to race to the forest, a mile or so away. The tortoise started off at once, at his steady pace; but the hare said boastfully, "I think I'll take a little nap first, I've plenty of time to spare." But when the hare woke up, the sun was setting in the west, and though he raced to the edge of the forest as fast as he could go, he found the tortoise there before him.

"Slow and steady wins the pace."

Although Franklin may not be successful in all sports, we attempt and win many challenging matches.

After practicing with the band during August, they marched with them at all football games, parades, and pep rallies. Once again, the Pantherettes played a big part in the Annual Stadium Review. The Pantherettes this year continued their traditional practice of making candied apples to sell at the football and basketball games in order to buy jackets.

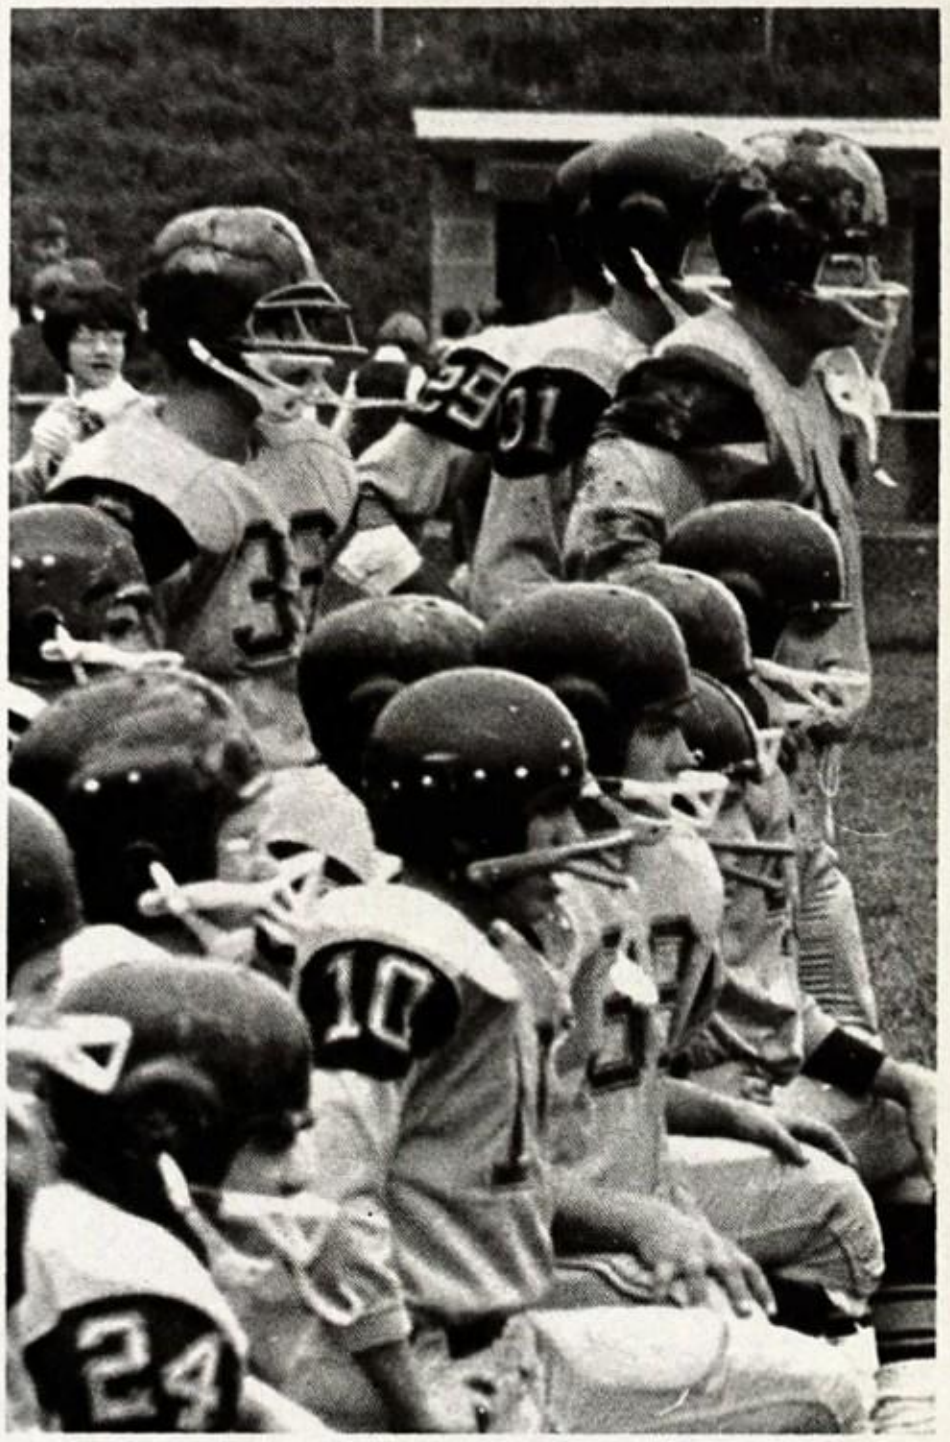
Although facing many obstacles, our fighting Panther football team approached the 1966-67 season with much courage and anticipation. The boys began practice during August under the coaching of Mr. Eyles, Mr. Cowan, Mr. McCormick, and Mr. Onder, only to find that on the average, they were underweight. This was one of the main hindrances during the season which quite possibly caused our six game losing streak. However, the Panthers had a comeback, and won the last three games, and had its first shut-out in Franklin's history.



"We just weren't comfortable on the bench."

"Did you say tackle?"

"Let me, Coach, please?"

Baseball

Under the excellent coaching of Mr. Patrick Ambrose, the 1966 baseball team practiced long hours in preparation for the season. The team fought hard and well, providing the Franklin spectators with many memorable games. We are proud of the fine job our boys did.

MR. SASALA – Head Coach

Track

An addition was made last year to Franklin's cavalcade of sports with the organization of the track team. Under the supervision of Mr. Sasala and Mr. Hummel, the boys began their vigorous training in March. The thirty-eight man team made a fine record of five wins and three losses. Proven a successful spring sport with our students, it is anticipated that track at Franklin will become bigger and better as time goes on.

Since we entered the Senior High School, we have not only been given the opportunity to train our minds but also our bodies. Franklin has acquired in the past three years, a new baseball field, football field, and tennis court. The school has also organized a wrestling team. The Class of 1967 would like to thank those who made these facilities possible.

Once there was a great rivalry among the beasts, each one claiming to have the largest family. Finally the disputing beasts came to the lioness, and said, "Queen Lioness, how many children do you have at a birth?" "Only one!" growled the lioness, "But that one is a lion."

"Quality before quantity."

We strived to get support from the superior establishments in our community.
